| 1 | The Adventure Begins | • God’s Word, the Bible, convicts people of their sin.
• God’s Word is the light that shows sinners to the narrow gate, Jesus Christ, the Savior.
• When we confess our sin and trust in Jesus, he forgives us and gives us life that lasts forever. | • Matthew 7:13–14
• John 3:16
• Romans 3:23
• 1 John 1:9 |
| 2 | Christian Gets Into Trouble | • Jesus sends us help through Christian parents, pastors, and leaders who teach us God’s Word.
• We cannot be freed from sin by trying to keep the Ten Commandments.
• We must hate what the world tells us about getting to heaven, and turn to Christ alone. | • Romans 3:23; 6:23
• John 10:27–28
• John 14:6 |
| 3 | Interpreter’s House and the Place of Deliverance | • The Holy Spirit prepares us to follow Jesus.
• The Holy Spirit guides, warns, and comforts Christians.
• Jesus died on the cross to get rid of our burden of sin and make us right with God. | • Luke 11:9–10
• John 14:26–27
• Romans 5:8–9 |
| 4 | The Hill of Difficulty and House Beautiful | • The Christian life is sometimes difficult, but Jesus gives us his Word and armor to face trouble on the way.
• Many people are not real pilgrims and will try to turn us away from Christ.
• God gives us other Christians to teach us God’s Word and prepare us to love and serve God. | • John 10:1–4
• 1 Thessalonians 5:6, 11
• Ephesians 6:10–18 |
| 5 | Through Dark Valleys | • Satan attacks God’s people, accusing and tempting them.
• Jesus arms his people for battle through his Word and prayer.
• We do not have to be afraid of death because God is always with us. | • Revelation 9:11; 12:10
• Ephesians 6:10–18
• Psalm 23:1–4 |
| 6 | Christian Meets Faithful | • God gives us Christian friends to strengthen and encourage us.
• True pilgrims are doers of the Word, not just hearers or talkers.
• Pastors teach, equip, and care for God’s people along the way. | • 1 John 1:6–9; 2:15–17
• James 1:22
• 1 Thessalonians 5:23–24 |
| 7 | Vanity Fair | • Every believer lives in the world and is tempted to buy its empty treasures.
• Unbelievers often laugh at and persecute Christians when they stand up for Jesus.
• God gives us wisdom to resist temptation, make right choices, and endure trials. | • James 1:2–5, 12 |
| 8 | Hopeful Joins Christian | • God gives us Christian friends to renew our hope in him.
• True pilgrims follow Jesus whether it is hard or easy and whether they are poor or rich.
• God warns us about lying, disobeying his commands, and loving money more than him.
• God gives believers relief from trials and battles in the Christian life. | • Matthew 22:37–38
• 1 Timothy 6:6–10
• Matthew 6:24, 33
• Psalm 23:1–3 |
| 9 | Giant Despair and Doubting Castle | • Christians sometimes doubt God and get discouraged.
• Even Christian friends may try to persuade us to make a wrong choice.
• The body of Christ supports us when we feel hopeless.
• Jesus’ presence and promises are the key that frees us from doubts and fears. | • Psalm 43:5
• 2 Peter 1:3–4
• Matthew 10:29–31
• 2 Timothy 4:18 |
| 10 | Shepherds and the Delectable Mountains | • Pastors are like shepherds. They care for us as their sheep, warn us against wrong beliefs, and equip us to face enemies of Christ.
• Hell is a real place. Those who refuse to repent of their sin and trust in Christ will go there when they die.
• We can praise God for providing all we need to follow Jesus. | • John 10:11–15
• Jude 24–25
• Psalm 147:1 |
| 11 | Little-Faith and the Flatterer | • Some Christians have stronger faith; others weaker. However, we all fail at times. We need to encourage one another.
• Wear God’s armor, remember Jesus is with us, and study and obey God’s Word to stand strong against Christ’s enemies.
• God frees his people trapped in sin when they confess their sin and cry out to him for help. | • 1 Thessalonians 5:11
• Ephesians 6:10, 13, 16
• Revelation 3:19–20 |
| 12 | Hopeful’s Testimony, Ignorance, and the Enchanted Ground | • Trying to keep the Ten Commandments can save no one.
• God gives us new hearts and we trust in Jesus, who died on the cross to pay for our sin.
• God forgives all our sin, gives us Christ’s righteousness, and adopts us as his children.
• We are to fear the Lord, and study and believe his Word to continue growing in faith. | • Romans 3:20
• John 6:37
• Romans 10:4
• Proverbs 1:7 |
| 13 | The Pilgrims Enter the Celestial City | • God promises to be with believers, even when they face death.
• Other believers help us remember God’s faithfulness and promises.
• When we are finally home with our Savior, we will sing with joy and praises. | • Isaiah 43:2
• Jude 24–25
• Revelation 5:13 |
